

Sigma Zeta Bake Sale Thursday, November 9 10am-2pm in BTC Commons.

Phi Theta Kappa What is it? What is it about? What are the benefits of membership? Find out at the new member meeting Thursday, November 16 at 2pm in VLH 123.

Student Leadership Commission is holding a food drive to benefit St Vincent de Paul Food Pantry in Alpena during the month of November. Drop boxes are located in VLH lounge, BTC lounge, and NRC lobby. Items in need include non-perishable food items, personal hygiene products, or gift cards to a dollar store. Donations can also be delivered to Meghan Cameron in VLH 121B. All donations stay local!

Free Glow Skating at Northern Lights Arena Saturday, November 18 from 5:30 to 7:20pm, courtesy of the Student Leadership Commission. Free for all students, staff, and their families.

Support ACC Hockey Saturday, November 18 at 3pm at Northern Lights Arena it's Lumberjack Hockey as they play Miami University of Ohio. Free admission for ACC students. Stay after the game for free glow skating!

What's Next? Visit the university transfer reps for guidance or ideas. Reps located outside the Bookstore.

- Spring Arbor University – Tuesday, November 28, 11am–2pm
- US Army Recruiter – Tuesday, December 5, 11am–3pm

ACC Underground is a short video segment where students will describe the different events that will be going on at ACC for the upcoming week. This will be a great way to find out what's happening on ACC's campus. Posted to our YouTube, Facebook, and Instagram every Monday, as well as emailed out to all students. Check out this week's installment: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ld8u7lvRw-Y>

Overcoming Procrastination A Student Services Workshop, November 29 at 12pm and November 30 at 2pm in VLH 128 & HUSH 213. We all procrastinate, but why do we do it? Start off next semester on the right foot by learning about why we procrastinate and how to conquer it.

3rd Annual Medical Assistant Christmas Craft Show December 9 (9am-4pm) and December 10 (11am-4pm) in BTC. Shop a great variety of hand-made items, kid's make-it-take-crafts, homemade cookies, lunch, and raffle baskets. Bring your camera and use the Christmas and winter backdrops for this year's photo. Medical assistant students will also be available to check vital signs.

ACC's Community Education Presents Registration required, call (989) 358-7271

- Creative Creations for KIDS – Tuesday, November 14, 5:30-7:30pm, $13
- Candy Making for Holiday or ANY DAY – Tuesday, November 14, 5:30-7:30pm, $35
- Christmas Theme Bird House for Adults with Special Needs – Thursday, November 16, 5:30-7:30pm, $22

Learn to Speed Read FREE Interested in learning to read faster and with more comprehension in a small group setting? Now is your chance to learn speed reading techniques along with notetaking and skimming techniques to build smarter reading skills to help you get through challenging course material. Technical Career Services is offering this to all qualified students FREE of charge. Stop by VLH 101 for more information or to share your schedule availability. Questions: talk to Paige in VLH 101, by phone 989-358-7329 or email triskop@alpenacc.edu.

Finishing Your Degree this Fall? Don't forget to apply for graduation. This initiates the process to review your record and award the degree. Apply ASAP if you are finishing this fall. If spring is your last semester, apply this month to get an early review so you are sure to register for the classes you need. Forms are available in the Registrar's Office, Huron Shores Office, or can be submitted through WebAdvisor.

The Spring 2018 Class Schedule is Now Available on WebAdvisor Early registration is open.

Help Desk Computer or technology issues? Let the ACC Student Help Desk fix you up: consultation/education, trouble-shooting, maintenance, cleaning, and repair of desktops, laptops, tablets and more. Stop by CTR 110D Tuesdays 1–3pm or Wednesdays 12–2pm during the semester.