

Creating a beloved community

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration

Monday, January 16, 2017 • Alpena Community College

3:00 - 4:30 p.m. Film & Discussion led by Matt Duncel

Alpena Community College, Besser Technical Center 122

The film is “BLACK AMERICA SINCE MLK: AND STILL I RISE.” This PBS film asks profound questions about the state of black America—and our nation as a whole. This event is free and open to the public.

5:00 - 6:15 p.m. Chili Supper • Adults $8.00, Students $4.00

Alpena Community College, Lumberjack Shack

Proceeds benefit “Wash Your Coat,” a project for our community that provides free laundromat service to those in need. Tickets available at the door. The Chili Supper is sponsored by First Congregational UCC, Grace Lutheran, St. Paul Lutheran, and Trinity Episcopal Churches.

6:30 p.m. Essay Winners Speak Out

Alpena Community College, Granum Theatre

Winners of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Essay Contest for junior high and high school students will have an opportunity to read their works—“Consider the conflicts in your own community: in schools, neighborhoods, churches, and other organizations. How might you create a Beloved Community?” This event is free and open to the public.

7:30 p.m. Discussion on Creating a Beloved Community/Understanding White Privilege

Alpena Community College, Newport Center 106

How are issues like education, health care, poverty, housing, and economic status related to white privilege? This event is free and open to the public.
