

SMALL TOWN, BIG CHALLENGES

LIVING LGBTQ+ IN NORTHEAST MICHIGAN

Come join us for a compelling and informative panel featuring several members of the LGBTQ+ community and their support persons from our rural area. This event will give an insight into the challenges that face LGBTQ+ folks while they navigate life in a small town.

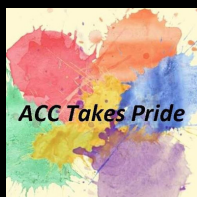

MARCH 5TH, 2020 6PM-8PM
ALPENA COMMUNITY COLLEGE
THE GRANUM THEATRE
NO COST TO ENTER
LIGHT REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED

The evening will consist of short presentations from community members followed by a question and answer session with the panel members. An opportunity to submit questions will be provided as time allows.

Please be mindful that these individuals are kind enough to be speaking to their lived experience for the purpose of an educational event. We ask that you remain respectful. Anyone suspected of attending in order to be harmful or combative will be asked to leave in order to maintain the integrity of the safe space.

Brought to you by:

Questions?
Call Shawn Sexton
at 989.358.7340