ALPENA COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO HOST 9TH ANNUAL HOOPS FOR HOPE PINK GAMES

ALPENA, MICH. – The Men’s and Women’s Basketball teams at Alpena Community College are supporting breast cancer awareness at a special Hoops for Hope game on February 14. The 9th Annual Hoops for Hope is sponsored by Alpena Community College and MidMichigan Medical Center – Alpena.

“The ACC Student Nurses Association has a great time at this event and go all out to decorate and promote the awareness of breast cancer at the college,” said Mike Kollien, Event Director, Hoops for Hope. “We are excited this year to include all cancers as the monies raised will be donated to the Cancer Center for patient treatment and technology.”

The Alpena Community College Lady Lumberjacks will host Wayne Community College on Wednesday, February 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the pink game. The Men’s Game against Wayne begins at 5:30 p.m.

Come and support the Alpena Community College Lumberjacks at this year’s Hoops for Hope games. The ACC students have gathered great items for a Pink gift basket raffle during the games and watch for special events during the half times of the games.
